

WIFLE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

BACKGROUND

WIFLE Foundation, Inc. and Women in Federal Law Enforcement, Inc. (both known as WIFLE) are organizations with a goal to achieve gender equity within federal law enforcement through the recruitment, retention and promotion of qualified women.

In June 2010, the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS) announced that as of 2008 (the most recent statistics available) women represented 15.2% of federal officers among reporting agencies. That percentage is lower than the 16.1% reported by the BJS in July 2006. There remains much to be done to achieve gender balance within the federal agencies. It is in the spirit of achieving this goal that WIFLE offers Scholarships.

THE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Purpose:

WIFLE offers several scholarships to talented individuals to meet demands in the field of law enforcement and to foster the professional development of those engaged in Law Enforcement. The dollar amount of each scholarship will be $2,500 but can vary based on numerous factors. WIFLE awarded $10,000 in scholarships in 2018. Awards may be renewable on subsequent applications.

Eligibility

WIFLE scholarships are awarded based on a student's academic potential, achievement, and commitment to serving communities in the field of law enforcement. The scholarship is open to all eligible persons. To be eligible for the scholarship, the applicant must:
