Women in Federal Law Enforcement is the only non-profit organization in the United States dedicated to addressing reasons why women remain underrepresented in Federal law enforcement. From our Annual Leadership Training to our Award and Scholarship Programs, we celebrate and encourage women to enter into the criminal justice fields and encourage Federal Agencies to seek qualified women for law enforcement jobs. WIFLE provides opportunities for its members to mentor other women, to grow in the federal law enforcement career fields, to participate in seminars, webinars, and to volunteer with other WIFLE members in activities throughout a year. We're extremely proud of the work we do and we encourage you to join WIFLE.
